Favourite collections

The new ZORA works differently, as it is no longer possible to automatically add your institute to the record. To ensure your institute/clinic being displayed at the top of the collections list when submitting, we strongly recommend to add it as your "favourite collection.

- Go to your profile

- Scroll down until the "Favourite collections" section

- Click on the button "Add favourite collections"

Favourite collections

Tip the name of your institute/clinic in the search bar and click on the corresponding collection to select it.

The collection name is always "Publications of Name of the Institute".

Favourite collections

It is possible to add more than one favourite collection.

Click on the button "Add favourite collection", tap the name of the institute in the search bar and click on the corresponding collection to select it.
